CATALOGUE

OF THE

PORCELLIAN CLUB.

The "Porcellian Club" was instituted in 1791, and the "Order of the Knights of the Square Table" in 1809.

On the 31st of March, 1831, the objects and interests of the two societies having long been identical, and a strong desire existing in favor of an alliance, they were united into one Association, under the name of the "Porcellian Club."

In accordance with an agreement entered into by the two Associations at the time of their union, a Catalogue is issued every few years of all the members of both clubs since their foundation. The present catalogue is as near as possible perfect, bringing the names of members and the list of books down to the present date.

Until the year 1833, the books, prints, statuary, and valuable relics deposited with the Association were kept in the Librarian's room. The collection then becoming too large and valuable to be left in this state of insecurity, the Association obtained a lease of the rooms which they still occupy.

These rooms are now open at all hours for the use of members.

N. B. The names of the residences of Members in the Catalogue have been taken from the old records; and, as it has been found impossible to correct them all in conformity with the changes which have since been made, they have been generally suffered to remain as first recorded. This may account for some misstatements in the present residences of members.
